The Qualities and Elements

The signs of the zodiac are grouped into two basic categories. These are known as the Qualities and the Elements. The Qualities describe fundamental modes of activity and the Elements describe temperament. There are three Qualities: Cardinal, Fixed & Mutable and four Elements: Fire, Air, Earth & Water. Your horoscope has varying degrees of each Quality and Element. The percentages you have of each will determine their importance in your life. The higher percentages will be most powerful in your life, the lower percentages will be less influential.

The Qualities

19% Cardinal

The Cardinal signs are Aries, Cancer, Libra & Capricorn. The greater number of planets you have in any of these signs the more Cardinal you are:

Cardinal people are action oriented and initiating. They are interested in promoting change and bringing new things into the world. They are direct, assertive and like to take charge of situations. They are ambitious, independent and dislike being supervised. They are good at starting projects, but not so good at completing them. They have abundant enthusiasm and are very resourceful. Cardinal people generally don't hold grudges.

38% Fixed

The Fixed signs are Taurus, Leo, Scorpio & Aquarius. The higher the concentration of planets you have in any of these signs the more Fixed your nature will be.

Fixed people are persevering and enduring. They achieve results in life through determined and persistent effort. They tend to do one thing at a time and are extremely practical in their approach to everything. They are not easily influenced by others and can be quite firm or stubborn once their minds are made up about something. They tend to hold onto things and are reluctant to change. They are staunch, but they can also be inflexible and at risk from becoming set in their ways.

43% Mutable

The Mutable signs are Gemini, Virgo, Sagittarius & Pisces. The higher the number of planets you have in any of these signs the more Mutable you are:

Mutable people are the most flexible of the three types; they tend to be happy to go with the flow. They are changeable and adaptable, but also indecisive and restless. They are sensitive to the opinions of others, but they can also be impressionable and easily influenced by environmental circumstances. Mutable people lack the stubbornness of the Fixed signs and the forcefulness of the Cardinal signs, which makes them good mediators and go-betweens.

The Elements

29% Fire

The Fire signs are Aries, Leo & Sagittarius. The more planets you have in the Fire signs the more pro-active and self-determining you are:

The Fire signs go for freedom of action and power. They strive for recognition in life. They are out-going and enthusiastic, adventure seeking and powerful. They are ardent, passionate, assertive, demonstrative, bold and courageous. They can also be impatient and bossy, willful and reactive, especially when they face delays or obstructions in their path.

38% Earth

The Earth signs are Taurus, Virgo & Capricorn. The greater the concentration of planets you have in the Earth signs the more practical and needful of security you are:

The Earth signs seek material security. They are down-to-earth, pragmatic, cautious, sensible and conservative. Hardworking and industrious, Earth signs are able to put into effect the ideas and inspirations of the other signs. They can be accumulative, possessive and overly materialistic. They are also sensual and pleasure seeking.

24% Air

The Air signs are Gemini, Libra & Aquarius. The higher the number of planets you have in the Air signs the more pro-active and self-determining you are:

The Air signs go for freedom of action and freedom of movement. Air signs need to be able to come and go at will. Their domain is the air we breathe; hence they are conduits for communication and the exchange of ideas. They are mentally alert and intellectually stimulating. Gregarious and sociable, Air signs like to be around other people. They are observant and perceptive, curious and inquisitive. They live totally in the here and now, and want to be in whatever is going on.

10% Water

The Water signs are Cancer, Scorpio & Pisces. The more planets you have in the Water signs the more needful you are of emotional security:

People with a majority of planets in the Water signs are motivated by the need to gain security in their emotional lives. They are sensitive, deep, compassionate, imaginative and intuitive. Their inner lives and dream lives are very active. They are spiritually inclined and potentially psychic, with an ability to tune into others. Life is experienced as a mystical journey. They can also be hypersensitive, impressionable and emotionally needy.

Ascendant

The Ascendant ~ Your Temperament & General Character.

Ascendant in Virgo

The Rising sign, often referred to as the ascendant, is the exact degree and sign of the zodiac that was just coming up over the eastern horizon at the moment that you were born. Along with your Sun and Moon, sign, it is one of the most important elements of your birth chart. It serves to establish a basic pattern in your life.

The Ascendant or Rising Sign is a key to self-discovery. It tells us how we express ourselves as individuals. It is not so much your identity as how you choose to express that identity. The older you get, the more you will strive to express yourself through the qualities of the Ascendant.

The energies of the ascendant are most obvious to others; revealing your initial and natural reactions to new people or situations.

A Virgo Ascendant endows you with an unemotional, self-reliant, calm, intelligent, inventive, and systematic approach to life. Careful and prudent, you are capable of exercising a great deal of forethought before you act. Although you are very adaptable and capable of being all things to all men, you will seldom show your real nature openly, and can be difficult to understand at times.

Your primary motivation in life is to gain secure material circumstances and to acquire possessions. You have a practical outlook on life, coupled with a desire for an orderly and tidy environment. There is a risk of experiencing difficulties with others through fault-finding or nagging. Work and health matters are important to you.

You have an unmistakable, intelligent yet reserved aura about you. You are quite cautious when meeting people for the first time and tend to be reserved until a connection has been established. In actual fact you are somewhat shy and like to have time to analyze things around you before you feel comfortable with new people and places. This quality can be taken at face value, or it can be mistaken for a rather stand-offish, cool, and even critical manner by others. People who give you the benefit of the doubt will find you have a lot to offer as you will not hesitate to help people out of a jam and go out on a limb for them.

You have a logical mind, good reasoning faculties and the capacity for scientific or literary pursuits. You are able to develop a fair amount of practical ability and can attend to minor details skillfully and methodically. You are apt to worry unnecessarily and to vacillate and change your mind. You tend to lack self-confidence at times and are too ready to give in when faced with difficulties.

You are not always as optimistic as you might be and will work best and be most fortunate if you cultivate a strong sense of purpose or work with others who are goal orientated. You have a sound business sense and a good eye for detail, so in the right environment you will find great potential for success. Your attention to detail is second to none; you notice the tiniest details that others overlook. You have a rather critical attitude to the extent that you can be over-critical and too fussy.

Qualities lacking to some degree, which may be found in your partner if not indicated elsewhere in this report are sensitivity, imagination and humility.

Aspects

Ascendant Conjunct Moon (4°12' Applying)

You present an emotionally sensitive and caring face to the world. Readily adaptable, you will bend over backwards to accommodate others and cater to their needs. You have natural warmth, coupled with an ability to make others feel at ease in your company. Women play an important role in your life and you will have many contacts with them. Alternatively, you can be overly sensitive and touchy, and changeable and inconsistent towards others. Difficulties can arise with others through moody and reactive behavior. You experience periods of feeling susceptible and vulnerable to external influences.

Ascendant Conjunct Mercury (1°38' Separating)

You have a keen mind and quite possibly an above average intelligence. You are sharp-witted and alert to what's happening around you; so much so that you rarely miss a trick. A clear communicator, you express yourself lucidly and frankly. Also, you are a good conversationalist because you are curious about what interests others. You are animated and expressive in company and probably talk with your hands. Intellectually, you have a questioning mind, coupled with the capability to form your own opinions and, when sure of your facts, tend to dominate discussions. Your personal environment is extremely busy all the time, which is just as well as you tend to be quite restless and find it nearly impossible to sit still for very long.

Ascendant Sextile Neptune (4°59' Separating)

You have an active imagination and are easily inspired and may show great talent in any of the creative fields - especially music, theater and writing. You instinctively tune into others and seem to understand their needs without them saying a word. At times, you give over an impression of floating on air or living in your own world.

Ascendant Conjunct Pluto (5°34' Separating)

You are a forceful personality and need to be in positions of control and power. You have an intense and magnetic presence and everything you do has a powerful affect on other people. You tend to dominate others and, as a consequence, often find yourself embroiled in power struggles. In extreme cases, you can come across as dictatorial and, if you feel your authority is threatened, can resort to ruthless or oppressive behavior. You have great will-power, which you can direct into projects of personal interest; however you will need to learn how to work with others if you want their assistance.

Sun

The Sun ~ Your Personality & Creative Expression.

Sun in Leo

As centre of the Solar System, the Sun symbolizes that which is central to you as an individual; your identity. The Sun is one of the most important planets in your natal chart and reveals how you express yourself; the 'type' of person you are; the underlying self. The Sun literally shows how and where you will shine as a person.

In Karmic astrology the Sun reveals your goals in this incarnation, highlighting the qualities that you need to incorporate into your life and indicating what the soul needs to experience in order to evolve.

With a Leo Sun, you possess a strong sense of dignity, nobility and warmth of heart. Broad-minded, expansive and self-confident you seek positions of authority and responsibility in whatever field you operate. You are rarely short of energy and drive; once you put your mind to something you have the determination to make it happen. You value loyalty and indeed expect it from everyone; friends, family and work associates.

You are creative in the broadest sense of the word and motivated by the urge to make your mark on the world and to gain a measure of personal recognition and power. You enjoy being center of attention or in the limelight in some way. At your best, you are self-assured, confident, out-going, sociable and companionable, but also you can be proud, status-conscious and susceptible to flattery. You exude authority and are a natural leader and organizer who can make sound decisions.

One of your best characteristics is that you are a generous person who takes pleasure in giving to others and making other people happy. In some instances it may seem that your generosity knows no bounds and if you can spend your money on others, you do. Your social nature and love of the limelight means that you are fond of entertaining people both in your own home and at other people's parties, where you are seldom short of company.

As a fixed fire sign you tend to be hard to move once you've made your mind up about something. You tend to dominate people and situations through sheer enthusiasm. This ability, together with a keen sense of drama and a love of display, makes you very popular.

On the negative side, you can be patronising, conceited, intolerant, self-indulgent and even a little tyrannical, but people are often willing to overlook your occasional failing due to your powerful charismatic presence.

In terms of personality development your main task is one of preserving a careful balance between desirable ambitions and the correct methods of obtaining them. Likely occupations involve anything that puts you in the spotlight and gives you an audience. This can include occupations such as teaching, executive posts in business, or any job that gives you an 'official' capacity, for example working in local or central government. The legal profession or working with animals also appeal to Leos. You were born to lead and your choice of work should reflect that for you to feel fulfilled.

Sun in 12th House

In your natal chart the Sun represents not only life, but your very essence; your ego. It is the driving force behind all that you are - your energy, creativity, will power and purpose. Within it lies the potential for everything that you can become.

The Sun also highlights your creativity and your need for personal recognition. You will strive to realize the qualities that the Sun represents in your horoscope through a process of what Carl Gustav Jung termed 'individuation' throughout your life.

The House where your Sun is found is very important as it indicates the specific area of life in which you manifest your identity. You will identify very strongly with the issues that the First House, the house of the 'subconscious' represents. Subconscious motivations will be a predominant theme throughout your life.

You are a private person who requires periods of seclusion and withdrawal from others to recover from the pressures of life. As a rule, you prefer to work behind-the-scenes and can feel uncomfortable under the glare of the spotlight. You experience fluctuating levels of self-confidence and tend not to be overly ambitious. You need to guard against the potential enmity of powerful individuals.

Aspects

Sun Square Mars (7°44' Separating)

You are a dynamic personality and a readiness for action is your signature. However, you can also gain a reputation for impatience, quick anger and aggression. You thrive on adventure, love danger and are prepared to take risks that others wouldn't contemplate. You are especially bold, courageous and audacious, but also occasionally reckless and careless. You need to guard against accident proneness. Advancements you make in life are based on your personal efforts and determination. You have quick reflexes and are able to respond to situations immediately. You may enjoy sports; certainly you take pleasure in setting challenges for yourself and competing with others.

Sun Sextile Jupiter (3°17' Applying)

You have an essentially positive and healthy outlook on life. Generosity of spirit and goodwill towards others makes you a popular companion and a fun person to be around. You are motivated by a strong urge to expand in life and to broaden your personal horizons. You have the ability to successfully advance your material, social, intellectual or spiritual aspirations. In general, you are a fortunate person whose needs in life will be met without too much hardship.

Sun Trine Saturn (3°58' Separating)

You view life seriously and realistically, with clear vision and the awareness that nothing is achieved without effort and industry. Your advancement in life is steady but sure. You have good powers of perseverance and patience, and will achieve your objectives by making sacrifices and exercising self-discipline. You are very good at focusing on the job at hand, are well organized and capable of sorting out priorities. You have a mature outlook and the ability to take responsibility for yourself and your actions. In general, you have sound morals and a strong sense of right and wrong. Wisdom increases with age.

Sun Sextile Moon's North Node (0°56' Applying)

You probably coexist harmoniously within some form of societal structure and are willing to take part in such affairs. Your natural inclination taps into the moral, ethical, and social customs of your cultural surroundings. Relatedly, you could assume some form of social leadership position by knowing how to encourage the cooperation of others by appealing to their ethical principles. This aspect also indicates an opportunity for expanded conscious awareness by allowing others to help in the refinement of your ego.

Sun Trine Moon's South Node (0°56' Applying)

This is generally a very nice aspect that suggests that you are well motivated with a sound ego. You have a deep desire to be loved and accepted by others for who you are. You are essentially people oriented and motivated by the need to form and cultivate associations. Your natural warmth and charm attract people to you and you enjoy being involved in group activities and co-operative ventures.

Moon

The Moon ~ Your Feelings & Ability to respond to everyday affairs.

Moon in Virgo

The Moon represents your emotions, instincts and the need for security. It shows your ability to be sensitive to the environment and to both give and receive emotion. The Moon is directly connected to your intuition, and is profoundly connected to your subconscious motivations and habits. The Moon indicates how you will instinctively react to protect yourself and others.

Virgo, the zodiac sign where your natal Moon is found reveals the specific way that you react to events and the kind of emotional needs you have.

In Karmic astrology the moon represents your inbuilt emotional patterns and shows how you need work toward the evolution of your emotional responses so that they become conscious choices rather than knee jerk reactions.

You are pragmatic and will often put practical considerations before your emotional needs. Family matters are never far from your mind. You are aware of your family responsibilities and obligations. There may be some difficulties expressing your feelings, as you can be quite shy or reserved.

A Virgo moon adds practical and analytical qualities to your emotional nature; you love to psychoanalyze emotions and reactions and to voice your opinions on both the cause and effect. The intellect is enhanced by this placement giving you an excellent memory and enthusiasm for learning.

You have a strong need for personal and domestic hygiene and neatness. You value tidiness and cleanliness in your home and work environments. Particular in your personal habits; you can be overly fussy and picky. Health and diet will also be important issues; you like to look good and think that you only look good when you feel good.

You are very perceptive and have an innate ability to see through illusions and delusions, but to do this you must learn to listen to your inner voice, which is difficult for you due to your need to analyze everything; you must learn to accept the intuition cannot be analyzed.

The thing you need to guard against is your tendency to be overly-critical of yourself and other family members. Not everyone will see things the way you do because not everyone looks at the most minute of details in the way that you do.

You are practical and well grounded, you like to look at things and figure them out for yourself. In fact, you spend so long dissecting and analyzing the factors that drive your emotional responses that others can become quite frustrated by it. However for you, such a discriminating emotional nature is vital to create a well-ordered emotional life for yourself.

Moon in 1st House

The Moon is the seat of your emotions, instinct and intuition and represents your early environment, particularly your relationship with your mother. It illustrates your ability to be sensitive to your surroundings and to both give and receive emotion. The Moon is related to your personal unconscious, and the habitual behaviour that comes from the subconscious, it shows how you instinctively react to protect yourself and others.

The First house reveals the particular area in life that you become attached to in order to increase your feelings of security. This area is where you are most vulnerable and defensive, however it is also this area where you experience the greatest growth and show the greatest concern for others.

This is a very important placement for the Moon as the First House is concerned with your identity. It describes your personality - how you see yourself and how others see you. The face you show the world is that of an emotionally sensitive and receptive person. Emotionally, you are an open book and inclined to wear your feelings on your sleeve. Your moods impact upon those around you. However, because you tend to be guided by your feelings you can be inconsistent, changeable and moody.

Professionally, you have a need to be in touch with others in your environment and may show talents in the public or catering sectors, or within the food industry. With the Moon in the First House your feeling, instinctive nature will find expression through personal interests related to self-awareness and a search for true social identity. A healthy self-image and socially presentable physical appearance are important to your emotional confidence. Your day-to-day response to circumstance is strongly conditioned by emotional factors - lack of direction, moodiness, over-sensitivity and changeability are the dangers.

Aspects

Moon Conjunct Mercury (5°50' Separating)

Your thoughts are influenced by your feelings and vice versa. You are highly perceptive and can easily sense the moods and emotions of others. The ability to rationalize your own and other people's thoughts and feelings comes naturally to you. Your mind is both fertile and imaginative and hungry for knowledge. You are an instinctual student and teacher, whose understanding of a subject is emotionally based. You may have a talent for foreign languages.

Moon Trine Mars (3°53' Applying)

Your feelings and actions are in sync with each other: how you feel determines the way you act or react to situations. You are usually honest about your feelings and have little trouble expressing them. You enjoy keeping busy and initiating new projects and enterprises. Being quite bold and courageous, you will speak your mind and express yourself in a direct and no-nonsense manner in confrontational situations. Others know where they stand with you, as you're always prepared to 'lay your cards on the table'.

Moon SemiSquare Jupiter (0°06' Separating)

The difficult or challenging aspects (such as this one) between Jupiter and the Moon are not usually too demanding, due to the planets' mutual connection to the sign of Cancer by essential dignity. You have a kind heart, a helpful and an obliging nature, coupled with the desire to help others in need. Philosophical and religious questions occupy your mind; however you can experience personal conflicts over matters of outlook and spiritual beliefs. You will most likely have connections with overseas countries or foreigners through travel or international business contacts. Negatively, there can be a tendency to slothfulness, greed or over-indulgence in pleasure-seeking activities.

Moon Square Saturn (7°39' Applying)

It would be fair to say that you do not find it easy to express your feelings to others; even those who have your trust. At times, you feel overwhelmed and exhausted by family responsibilities. It is possible that your relationship with a parent is distant or emotionally unfulfilling. There may be general difficulties with the female-sex. You are also given to recycling feelings of anxiety, worry, moodiness and melancholy.

Moon SemiSquare Moon's North Node (2°27' Separating)

You are motivated by the urge to establish spiritual and emotional connections with others. You judge another's character on your initial instincts. Family ties are extremely important to you; however there can be tensions between members of your family. Difficulties with others can arise through a lack of adaptability or insensitivity, leading to estrangements or parting company.

Midheaven

The Midheaven ~ Your Career & Social Status.

Midheaven in Gemini

The Medium Coeli (Mc), or Midheaven as it is more popularly known, is at the top of the chart wheel on the cusp of the 10th house. One of the most important angles in the birth chart, the Mc indicates your career, status, aspirations, public reputation, and your ultimate goal in life. The Mc also reveals the image you have of yourself and where you strive to realize your full potential; particularly with regard to your career. The Midheaven shows you what you need to do with your life in order to grow; defining the externalization of the self.

You need mental stimulation, variety and activity in your professional life and would like to be recognised for your intellect. This placing indicates that your career or area of responsibility in the world relates to your ability for mental discipline, concentration, mental control, orderly reasoning and logical thinking. You are adaptable and versatile with a talent for multi tasking - you may even pursue two or more career paths at the same time. You require a great deal of versatility and variety in your work, or you become bored.

You are an ideas person with a strong intuition and natural creativity that helps you stay ahead of the game. You instinctively know how something will work; although you may not be as good at practically implementing your ideas as you are at generating them; consequently , you are often happy to give birth to the idea and let someone else bring it into being.

You have diverse personal interests and connections but always know when it's time to move on in life. The older you get the more you will develop a contemplative mind; responsible, thoughtful and capable of concentration on serious or profound subjects.

Communication is also of great importance to you and you will put a lot of effort into every aspect of this area. Clear written and verbal communication is of paramount importance; you have very good negotiating skills which will come in handy throughout your career. You will be happy in positions that rely heavily on communication; teaching, administration, accounts, publishing or some kind of research. Other jobs that satisfy your need for communication and the dissemination of ideas include media, technology, philosophy, writing, transport services, sales, public relations and other jobs which are related to communication and the distribution of ideas.

Your aim in life is to have many and varied experiences. You have an enthusiasm for change and variety. Self-realization is achieved through having an open mind and being adaptable. Your self-esteem grows through the acquisition of knowledge.

Midheaven Square Mercury (3°06' Applying)

For the most part, you are a thinker and a doer. You have the ability to advance vocationally through being clear about what you want to achieve and keeping abreast of developments in your field. You are well-suited to academic work, such as teaching or lecturing, but are equally capable as a communicator or business professional. Media work, acting or politics may appeal to you also. You are probably a good storyteller. Others value your advice because they know you keep yourself up to date and informed. Alternatively, you may experience miscommunications with family members, professional colleagues or authority figures over matters of outlook. Your career path is unlikely to be straight and clear, as you are inherently restless and prone to frequent job changes. At times, your career and family commitments encroach upon one another.

Midheaven Sextile Venus (2°01' Separating)

You are a warm-hearted and loving individual and, in general, enjoy good relationships with your family and work colleagues. You have a unique sense of style and have quite individualistic fashion tastes and preferences. Status in your career is important to you, and vocational successes are likely in creative occupations or the arts, the beauty or fashion industries, or the public relations sectors.

Midheaven Quincunx Neptune (0°15' Separating)

You have a lot of uncertainty and confusion about your purpose and direction in life. Somewhat idealistic, you dislike manual work and given the choice would rather serve humanity in some way. You prefer to work for other people and may need to learn consistency within your work environment. Professional recognition is hard, but not impossible, to realize. There will be many periods in your life when you question what you're doing and where you're going. You have healing abilities and a readiness to help; however you need to take care that you are not taken advantage of or exploited. You are best suited to working in fields that rely on creating illusions, such as photography, fashion, acting, writing, music, films or television. You benefit from adopting a spiritual discipline or religion. Your domestic situation may be tenuous and insecure at times.

Midheaven Square Pluto (0°50' Separating)

You have the capability to make your mark on the world and become a person of some significance or importance. If other factors in your horoscope support it, you have the potential to gain a measure of fame. At some point in your life, there is a strong possibility you will undergo a radical change in direction that may surprise both yourself and others. You have the capability to be a leader or a public figure; however you need to take care not to abuse your authority, as it is likely to annoy others. If you misuse your power, your past may catch up with you and ruin your reputation. There can be power struggles in the home or domestic upheavals.

Mercury

Mercury ~ Your Mind & Mental Abilities.

Mercury in Virgo

Your ability to communicate and desire for knowledge is governed by Mercury. Mercury characterizes your thoughts and the constant activity that goes on in your head. Mercury stimulates the mind, but can make you a little critical on occasion.

Virgo, the zodiac sign Mercury where your natal Mercury is found, illustrates the form your communications take and your intellectual biases and aptitudes.

In karmic astrology Mercury indicates karma connected with the mind. It describes how your soul communicates and shows how your mind was used in previous incarnations.

You have an analytical and logical mind, with practical reasoning skills. Naturally studious, you have the capability to acquire specialized expertise that is recognized by others.

As Mercury rules Virgo it is particularly influential in your natal chart. You have an intelligent, strong, versatile mind and possess great attention to detail. Your ability to analyze and critically assess a situation or problem is unparalleled. Your thinking is orderly and methodical; precision is your forte. You have a talent for gathering and classifying information. You have a good memory and the ability to think practically and constructively.

One problem that you may have is that sometimes you become so preoccupied with a minor detail that you lose sight of the bigger picture. You can also be critical and pedantic at times.

Your practical mental disposition is well-suited to demanding intellectual work and you may find success in fields such as science, teaching, administration or in jobs requiring detailed analytical ability. You may have a predisposition to nervous energy which can result in headaches and needless worry.

Mercury in 12th House

Mercury speaks to us in terms of logic and reasoning; it represents how you think and how you communicate those thoughts. Mercury also highlights subjects such as routine travel - local travel, commuting to work and weekend outings.

The House where Mercury is located in your natal chart, in this case the Twelfth House, shows the particular area in which your mental and verbal talents are put to practical use. This is the area in which you realize your need to communicate with the outside world and increase your learning.

Saturn contributes rules, boundaries and limitations to your; reminding you of your duty and responsibility. By heeding that reminder you develop self discipline and organization.

Saturn's influence in a zodiac sign centers primarily on the cultural and authoritarian influences and trends found in society as a whole. Perhaps more importantly, it shows the influence of society on you as an individual.

You are honest and straightforward in your dealings with people and have sufficient confidence in your own opinions so as to voice them even if they are at odds with mainstream thinking. As a child it was probably said that you had an old head on young shoulders.

You are serious about philosophy, religion and higher education. Saturn polarises your powers of concentration in this placement and as such you may find that you have an intense desire (and ability) to study. You would like to be recognized as an authority in a field of higher learning.

You are generally pragmatic and philosophical in your outlook on life, however, you need to guard against intellectual pride and closing your mind to alternative viewpoints or realities. You can sometimes experience difficulty in admitting to errors of judgment.

In order to succeed in your social position in the world you will have to gain understanding and expertise associated with intellectual matters, truth and knowledge, perhaps through philosophy, religion, law or other profound subject of higher education. You should structure your approach to life using sound moral precepts and constructive, honorable and just social values. Life experience will enable you to learn valuable lessons related to the above issues. Through diligent effort and achievement you may gain distinction and become a recognized authority within your chosen field of endeavor.

Saturn in 4th House

Saturn provides structure and foundation; it teaches you through experience, showing you the rules of the game in this physical reality. Saturn's House position shows where specifically you will experience the greatest challenges and limitations, but by meeting those challenges, it shows you where you can eventually create the firmest of foundations and structures. This is an area that will absorb much of your time. No matter how hard you try to avoid commitment in this area, you will be forced by circumstances to overcome your fears and become an expert in the field indicated.

In these areas you will be more inclined to feel hesitant, repressed, desperate for recognition and frustrated. Normally you will build up self-reliance and independence in these areas after around 30 years of age.

It's fair to say that home life and the family is very important to you, and that more so than most, you will work hard in your chosen career to achieve the comfort and stability that may not have been available for you when you were growing up.

Your home and family life are very important to you; however there can be difficulties attaining domestic harmony and security. There could be difficulties in your relationship with one or both of your parents, with the possibility of physical or emotional separation from the father in particular.

It may be particularly difficult for you to come to terms with the experiences and hardship you went through as a child, you may feel that removing yourself from that environment completely by moving to another locality or country is your best option. If so, your career will be closely connected to your making that move.

The fourth house is related to the zodiac sign of Cancer and to the intuitive and emotional Moon. As such you may find that your intuition plays a significant role in your career. Learn to trust your intuition and follow through with your hunches.

Personal wisdom comes with age and maturity. Emotional security and self-acceptance will eventually come from a true knowledge of self and an ability to focus inwardly, away from the emotional dependency of others.

Your profession may involve real estate, building projects, big business, creative endeavours or working from the home.

You need to use these skills in this present life to master the lessons of the opposite point, the North Node without falling back into the old habits of the past. Moon's South Node in 8th House

The South Node represents habit patterns from childhood or from past lives. These are comfortable patterns, but they often get in the way of you having the kinds of connections you want with other people.

The sign and house placement of the South Node indicates where you have a tendency to totally overdo things. There is a longing here; a craving that is very strong.

With the Moon's South Node placed in the eighth house you experience difficulties with shared money and possessions.

Part of Fortune

The Part of Fortune ~ Your Happiness.

Part of Fortune in Virgo

The Part of Fortune is a sensitive point in your chart derived from the positions of your Sun, Moon, and Ascendant; the three key points of your birth chart. The Part of Fortune is considered a beneficial point. It shows the area of your chart where rewards and advantages can be found once you learn to balance the personal expression of these three factors. The Part of Fortune also represents the place in your chart where you must not compromise your ideals; where you must be true to yourself. At a deeper level, the Part of Fortune is considered to represent the path to contentment by harmonizing your inner and outer needs.

The characteristic style of Virgo is intellectual, analytical, conservative, and always seeking perfection. You use your mastery of details to attain happiness and success through intellectual analysis, self-criticism, introversion, and the use of crisis in overcoming obstacles. Creating an organized, productive and clean environment brings you great satisfaction. By tempering your logic with compassion your pot of gold lies at your finger tips.

Part of Fortune in 1st House

The Part of Fortune shows the general focus of existence; giving the necessary emphasis of the life, fundamentally and biologically. Perhaps more importantly it represents your special horizon of success. The Part of Fortune will give a significant insight into the potentials of your accomplishments through the sign and in particular the house (in this case, the First) where it is found.

Having the Part of Fortune in the First House means that you were born at or just after a New Moon, and, as such you will carry the characteristics of the New Moon, representing the very beginning of the lunar cycle when everything is fresh and new and full of potential. This endows you with instinctive, unconscious and subjective awareness. It gives you energy and action and the ability to meet the world with optimism.

You have a deeply individual way of approaching life's situations and that will also apply to your quest for happiness and success. You have natural charm and charisma, enabling you to achieve success on your own merits. The Part of Fortune in the First House suggests that your greatest success will come by developing independence and self-sufficiency; by being the master of your own destiny - meeting life experience with individual initiative rather than by being dependent on the views of others.
