Hello Demi ,

Welcome to your Personality Profile, please check the birth details of your horoscope are correct. This report sets out to give you an assessment of your personality and character development by interpreting the different parts of your birth chart.

Your birth chart represents a map of the solar system for the exact time and place of your birth, it's a blueprint of your personality and represents a set of potentials, with the contents being added through the experiences of life.

Most people are aware of the Sun's zodiac sign that they were born under, however, it's not only the Sun sign that exerts a powerful influence over the birth chart and character. The Rising Sign, the Moon, the planets, the angles they form to each other, called 'aspects', their zodiac sign and house positions also play an important role.

As you read through this analysis, you will occasionally notice that contradictory information may be given. This is to be expected, as each individual's character is extremely complex. For example, at times we can be aggressive and confident, and at other times withdrawn and moody. And if planetary patterns seem to be repeated time and time again, that's because the analysis is focusing on a particular and very important strength or weakness within your character.

The birth chart is comprised of three basic factors.

- 1. The Planetary Aspects (angles) formed between the Sun, Moon and planets, as seen from the Earth, are represented by the lines in the centre of your chart and the intensity is indicated by the number of stars each aspect is given in the report.
- 2. Each planet is located in a particular Sign of the Zodiac. The symbols for each Zodiac Sign are placed around the edge of the birth chart, Aries, Taurus, Gemini, Cancer, Leo, Virgo, Libra, Scorpio, Sagittarius, Capricorn, Aquarius, and Pisces.
- 3. Each planet is also located in a particular House, numbered 1 to 12 in the birth chart.

How the planetary positions of your birth chart relate to each other are interpreted on the following pages outlining your potential development. Your birth chart, is indeed unique, although many people may have, for instance Mars in Scorpio, or Venus in Capricorn, and hence have certain traits in common, the number of ways in which the three factors of Planetary Aspects, Zodiac Signs and Houses can be combined is infinite.

The 'Aspects' are given a Star Rating from one to five to show their relative importance in the Profile. To the right of each pair of 'aspect' symbols is a group of five stars ★☆☆☆☆, the more dark stars there are the more important the connection. The keys for the planets and the other symbols and terms used are given at the back of the report.

Personality Profile Interpretation

Your birth chart shows the exact positions of the planets at your time of birth. It also tells you the sign of the Zodiac that was rising at your time of birth, known as your 'ascendant'. How the planetary positions of your birth chart relate to each other are interpreted on the following pages outlining your potential development. The interpretation begins with your overall character and temperament.

Demi 's character

Demi 's emotions

You have an emotional disposition, which relates and responds to people and situations intuitively. Strongly sympathetic, even compassionate, you are often attracted to those less fortunate, hoping to ease their problems by taking on a part of them yourself. This can create confusion and turbulence in your own life and because emotions are often hard to control, you can also become moody and unpredictable. As a protective reaction to all this, you can then become withdrawn and defensive.

Demi 's thoughtfulness

You need to develop and maintain your powers of self-expression and perception. Not that these faculties don't function, but you tend sometimes to let them slide and therefore, your capacity for insight and awareness can become subdued and clouded.

Demi 's temperament

Demi 's consistency

You have strong opinions and your ideas appear consistent. However, you can at times slide into dogmatism and an unwillingness to change. Good powers of concentration and endurance ensure that your determination remains as strong towards the end as it was at the beginning.

Demi 's capabilities

You might at times lack that old get-up-and-go when action and initiative are called for. Therefore, you may find that you function best in already established surroundings, or when you are being managed by others.

AS

The Ascendant or Rising Sign

Represents the area of life concerned with your sense of self-identity, the impression you give and how others see you.

AS in X

Self-identity

Surrounded in a cloud of mystery, others find you enigmatic, alluring and attractive. At times, however, life may be seen through rose tinted glasses. There's also a danger of turning to drugs or alcohol to alleviate harsher realities. But at its most positive, this is an excellent placing for those in the caring professions as your sensitivity and sympathy allows you to identify with others.

AS △ ☉ ★★☆☆☆

Creative drive

You'll have powerful creative talents, and at times even feel that you could succeed in almost anything you try to do. While this is probably true, there's also a tendency to keep putting things off until tomorrow! Nevertheless, you'll more than likely become a professional in whatever career you choose. The pressure of competition and the demands of proving your worth in your chosen field will provide the drive to achieve your full potential.

AS ✖ ☾ ★☆☆☆☆

Sensitive

You can be sensitive to what others say to you or about you. This was particularly true when you were younger, but as you grow older, this sensitivity will turn into a deeper understanding of yourself and others. However, there will be times when you may still have difficulty in separating fact from fiction, or tend to believe only what makes you feel comfortable with yourself. You pick up easily on the moods and emotional states of others.

AS △ ♀ ★★★★★☆

Diplomacy

Generally you're diplomatic and fair in your dealings with others. You're willing to consider both sides in any argument and able to see the relative merits of both points of view. This sympathetic approach encourages others to trust in your understanding of their problems and in your assessment of the possible causes and solutions.

AS ∟ ♯ ★☆☆☆☆

Overcoming obstacles

You have some difficulty in expressing yourself as freely as you would like. Occasionally you tend to be hesitant and reserved when meeting new people - a reaction that you find intensely frustrating since you don't feel that you're getting across the real you.

Perhaps when you were a child you felt unable to express yourself openly to your parents and your natural childhood enthusiasm had to be tempered with rules and limitations on your conduct. In other words, the importance of living up to your duties and responsibilities has probably been programmed into you from an early age but now, often, you feel that this conflicts with your need to be yourself.

Success in your career and stability in your home life are important to you and will eventually be achieved but you may first have to overcome some obstacles and disappointments before you finally get there.

The Sun

Your essential self, the focus of your being. It indicates what you are striving to become as an individual.

Vitality

Your emotional nature is deep and intense, although when necessary, you can cover your powerful feelings with a calm and even indifferent surface appearance. Your willpower is strong, and you'll not be easily swayed from your goals or ideals. In fact opposition is likely to merely strengthen your resistance.

At times you may also have a deep distrust in life and in other people. Although you value your own independence very highly, you can be very jealous and possessive if a partner's independence threatens your security.

8th house

Relationships or partnerships in which you relate to others on a deeper, more emotional level, sex, beginnings and endings, joint resources and money held in common, and inheritances.

Self expression

You'll have a need to merge your own emotions, or financial and material possessions, with others. You'll probably also have a great fascination for esoteric subjects or religions.

Needs

There is a conflict between what you want and what you need. You'll tend to swing between emotional extremes thereby confusing others as they'll never be sure whether you're arrogant, and too self determined, or too sensitive and overly emotional. The truth is that you're a mixture of both.

Ideas

You may occasionally lack objectivity in your thinking, identifying too much with your opinions. Although you like to express your thoughts, your words may not always be backed by the facts and they will be more of an expression of how you would like things to be. Nevertheless, with more objectivity and tolerance of others' opinions you would have a tremendous skill in communicating ideas and concepts to others in a clear and understandable way.

Good fun

You're something of a charmer and, whether you'll admit it or not, you need to be liked by other people. You're not the sort to hide in a corner at parties. You like to be noticed and to be seen as a friendly, sociable and fun person, which of course you are!

Impatient

You have a great deal of energy and drive and can work hard for long periods. However, when things don't happen to go your way, you can over-react and occasionally take your frustration out on friends, family and colleagues.

You're also impatient with any kind of restriction on your freedom, liking to do what you want when you want. But without the occasional compromise, this could inevitably cause conflicts.

Having said all this, this aspect also gives a tremendous drive to succeed in whatever it is you have set your heart on and a tireless energy that will eventually get you to your goal.

Publicity

You're idealistic and imaginative. However, early in your life you may have had some difficulty in gaining a clear sense of self-identity, who you were and where you were going in life, but once this problem has been, or is overcome, you'll have the potential to turn dreams into reality.

You should be good at dealing with the public, or public speaking. You have an almost mystical aura about you that's able to capture the imagination of your audience and make them aware of issues about which they may be unclear or uncertain.

The Moon

Represents the emotional and compassionate side of your nature and your immediate emotional reaction to life pleasures and problems. It also indicates attitudes instilled in early childhood.

Habits

You have a need for material security. This doesn't necessarily mean a materialistic attitude it's just that you need to have your financial affairs under control in order to feel secure. You'll more than likely have a strong sense of values, possibly inherited from your mother, and are faithful and steady in your emotions. However, once you make up your mind on an emotional issue, you rarely change it. Carried to extremes this can lead to possessiveness, and a stubborn refusal to change or go against your values, even if they are no longer relevant to your life.

2nd house

Possessions and what you own, accumulation of wealth and resources or acquired skills and gifts which give you a sense of value, worth and personal security.

Attitudes, emotions and specific needs

Past experiences will have resulted in a need for possessions and material wealth in order to feel comfortable and at ease with yourself. The fluctuating nature of the Moon, however, means that your finances may be subject to changes and instability.

You may also have an emotional attachment to the things you own, particularly things that are in some way related to your past or your family. You have probably inherited your sense of values from your family background, particularly from your mother.

Emotional expression

You may have some difficulty in balancing your emotions with the more logical, intellectual side of your nature. Communications with others on an emotional level may therefore occasionally be confused. At times your reason may be overwhelmed by your emotions, at other times you swing to the opposite extreme and your logical approach to emotional issues may convince others that you lack feelings.

Emotional insecurity

There may be some difficulty in personal relationships. You may occasionally tend to depend too much on your partner to provide you with emotional security. You need to get in touch with your own feelings, to find your sense of security within yourself and then you'll find that instead of looking to others to provide for your needs, emotional satisfaction and security can be found within yourself.

Emotional reaction

Your emotional life will occasionally be a source of conflict. At times you can be overly sensitive, especially with those close to you, and you may over-react or respond to any threat or attack on your emotional security, sometimes with inappropriate aggressiveness.

Occasionally, you may need to examine your past to try and pin-point and understand where this anger is coming from so that you can make positive use of this planetary aspect affecting your birth chart.

Unrealistic

Your ideals in emotional relationships may be unrealistic in reality. Beware the tendency to project the ideal of perfection onto those closest to you. Since you're always willing to give others the benefit of the doubt, you should be aware that others may deceive you.

At times you may be disappointed when others don't live up to your expectations. But you need to appreciate that your high ideals come from within yourself and since even you cannot always live up to them, how do you expect others to?

Emotional strength

Emotionally you'll generally be able to weather any storm with the knowledge that a crisis is often necessary to shake you out of a rut and that you'll emerge from it with a greater inner strength and understanding.

Mercury

Represents your communication skills and how you think and receive information from others.

Mentality

Your mind has an intense and penetrating quality that allows you to see beneath surface appearances. This is a good position for any form of investigative or research work, since you'll not be satisfied with superficial and surface appearances.

You have strong powers of concentration and a determination to get to the bottom of things, although at times you can be overly suspicious of others. For this reason you'll generally be reserved about discussing or openly expressing your emotions and feelings, unless you're sure that the person you are talking to can be trusted. Also, once you have made up your mind on an emotional issue you'll not easily be shifted from your position.

Communication skills

You have the kind of mind that likes to penetrate beyond surface appearances to examine emotional undercurrents and deeper feelings within yourself and others. However, you'll have a tendency to keep your own motives and thoughts secret, or at least not reveal them completely.

Mentally, you'll always be attracted towards mystery and esoteric subjects. Time will also be a fascination - with the thought of time travel stimulating your imagination more than most.

You can turn your intellect to business and financial matters with some success, although you should examine any agreement or contract carefully, as what is said or promised by one person may not be what the other understands, resulting in misunderstandings and disagreement. This also applies to emotional relationships.

Unreasonable

You're generally able to express yourself with a great deal of energy, but you don't always think things out carefully or consider all of the facts before you voice your opinion.

You can also occasionally have an explosive temper and, when upset, your criticisms or verbal attacks can be cutting and hurtful. Perhaps you had to learn early in life to defend yourself verbally, or put your opinions across in a forceful or aggressive manner in order to be heard. Whatever the case, the end result is that in adulthood you'll tend to regard challenges to your opinions and ideas as a direct attack on yourself, and react accordingly.

In your home or professional life particularly you're not afraid to take a stand for what you believe, although at times if you looked at things more objectively, you may be able to see that you could be acting rather unreasonably.

Thoughtfulness

You have a well-developed and open mind. You absorb knowledge quickly, and are always eager to learn as much as you can. You're able to communicate well but at times may be over enthusiastic when expressing your own point of view. Nevertheless, because of your ease at communication, you'll generally fit in well at all levels of society, and your openness and honesty will give others the confidence to entrust you with positions of responsibility.

Your broad philosophical outlook and understanding of other people will be an asset in any career occupation that involves teaching or helping people, since you'll be concerned with helping them to develop what is best in themselves, rather than indoctrinating them with a particular point of view.

♀ □ ♯ ★★☆☆☆

Doubt

You have a tendency to look on the gloomy side of things, to think more about obstacles and potential difficulties than about opportunities and exploration.

You may also occasionally have difficulty in communication when it comes to general conversation or discussion, possibly due to an inner doubt about whether you'll be properly understood, or even listened to.

Nevertheless, your caution and thoroughness in intellectual matters will benefit you well. Indeed, your tendency to look for problems before they arise means that you usually have the solution already to hand when it is needed.

♀ ♂ ♁ ★★★★★☆

Fantasy

You have a need to indulge in fantasy, occasionally to the point when you'll choose to escape the harsher realities of life totally through your imagination. This isn't such a bad thing - we all need to escape the daily drudge from time to time.

However, as your sensitive mind can be more reluctant than most to face the world as it is, you can fall into the trap of exalting a person or situation so that it resembles what you would like it to be. If, in the end, it doesn't turn out to be the dream you were hoping would come true, then you'll be disappointed when you see the full reality of the situation.

Your mind is very intuitive and sensitive to the psychic atmosphere around you. You will often feel that you know what a person is thinking or feeling without them having to say anything. Often you'll be right, but just as often it will be you projecting your own thoughts and feelings on to them. You'll therefore need to learn to discriminate between the two.

You have a fine appreciation of all forms of art, particularly music. However, at times, you could be tempted to experience different states of consciousness through the use of drugs, but you'll soon appreciate that this destructive path is pointless, since meditation would work just as well for you.

Research

You have a deeply analytical mind and a psychic ability that you're probably not always fully conscious of. Possessing an urge to understand the mysteries of life and death you need, more than most, to find some meaning in life and in your experiences. You seek the truth in all things.

You would therefore be suited to any form of investigation or research, since you're never satisfied with the obvious or superficial solution, you're always looking for some deeper and more inclusive connection between the facts.

You will find that people will respect your opinions and your solutions to their problems, since your words will carry an authority and conviction based on a deep and instinctive understanding of the real issues.

Venus

Represents how you express your emotions within love, marriage and other personal relationships. It also indicates your attitude towards money, possessions and your aesthetic values.

Capacity for love

You approach relationships with deep emotional intensity. Sometimes these intense feelings may be difficult for even you to understand or accept. You may handle this by giving the impression of being unemotional, but you're not as hard as you like people to think.

You may find yourself involved in relationships that have a powerful and transforming effect on your life. You'll be possessive, but, like most of your deeper feelings, that will probably be safely hidden beneath the surface. To expose how you really feel would only make you feel vulnerable.

Love and what you value most

Your intense emotions run deep. Through relationships you'll be confronted with your own hidden needs and fears, possibly accompanied with a certain amount of pain. However, this is a good position for business partnerships, as you may benefit financially through a relationship.

You'll also have a love for what is deep and esoteric, with the urge to penetrate beyond surface appearances to reveal hidden meanings and motivations.

Adventurous

There could be a conflict between your need to be close to someone and your need for emotional independence. This may also lead to a sense of dissatisfaction with yourself and irritability with those closest to you since you feel that they're always getting in your way and preventing you from doing what you want to do.

Your more placid and charming side can cover over the tension for a while, but your more aggressive and demanding side will eventually break out and shatter the peace.

A sense of excitement and satisfaction in your love life will be important. If sex becomes dull and routine or you feel that you're no longer appreciated or desired you'll find a new relationship that will rekindle the spark of desire.

Unrealistic expectations

You have an idealistic approach to relationships. You're a romantic, but at times your expectations of others may also be unrealistic and you may therefore occasionally have difficulty in accepting people as they really are rather than as you would like them to be. At times this desire to see the good in everyone can make you vulnerable to deception by others.

Mars

Represents your sex drive, stamina and how aggressively you assert yourself and express your desires.

♂ in ♈

Driving force

You can be direct and forceful when it comes to going out and getting what you want. You have a passionate belief in the power of one, 'yourself', and will often fight for anyone in need. Charities often benefit from your generosity.

You'll tackle difficult situations head on and won't be easily dissuaded from a particular course of action once you have decided on it. However, at times, you may have to make a conscious effort to balance your own needs with the needs of others, and to temper your enthusiastic drive with a little looking before you leap.

5th house

Your creativity, either expressed through children, or through various art forms. Leisure activities, sports, gambling, love affairs etc. in fact all forms of recreation where you express yourself freely and without inhibition.

♂ in 5th House

Stamina and assertiveness

You'll always have a strong need to escape life's dull routines and will seize any chance to let your hair down and have a good time. If this need is blocked you'll lose your temper.

You have a strong independent streak in your approach to love relationships and this may cause some conflict.

As a parent, you will also need a degree of independence from your children and they'll have to learn very early to stand on their own two feet. This again may cause some stress in your relationships with your children.

Taking it easy

There will be times in your life when you suffer from periods of confusion and self-doubt about who you are, where you're going and what you should be doing with your life. You also have an addictive nature that takes all too easily to drink, drugs and any other weird and wonderful pastime. The truth is, you really don't have the physical or emotional constitution to cope with constant abuse so, if possible, all things in moderation, or not at all.

♃

Jupiter

Represents expansion, your sense of fun, optimism and generosity. It also gives information concerning your religious and philosophical beliefs.

♃ in ♃

Optimism and understanding

You have high philosophical ideals. You like to help people where you can and help them to achieve their goals and fulfill their purpose in life. And indeed, it's through this generosity that many opportunities for your own personal and material growth will arise.

12th house

Surrendering to forces that are beyond your control, a higher power or ideal. Greater self understanding and spiritual goals. Large institutions such as hospitals and prisons, where many people end up if the self-surrender described above is overdone, or made to the wrong ideals.

♃ in 12th House

Optimism and understanding

No matter how dire your circumstances may become, you have a deep-seated faith that life itself will provide for your needs and, indeed, you'll more than often be saved in the nick of time from impossibly difficult circumstances by what appears to others to be good luck, but in fact it's luck which you've created from your own thoughts and actions.

Expectation

Your interest in philosophies or religions is of an unconventional nature. You have an insatiable thirst for knowledge, believing that through education you can gain the freedom you need to be yourself. If you can be confident in your ability to communicate your ideas, then you do have the capacity to achieve whatever goals you wish. You would work most effectively in occupations related to law, politics or education.

Saturn

Represents your sense of responsibility and limitations. It shows how you react to setbacks and the areas in which you are most fearful and insecure. Nevertheless, it is also the planet that teaches the important lessons of life and can become your greatest strength.

♄ in ♃

Challenges

It's important that you set objectives in life because once they have been determined they will be followed through to completion. You also enjoy being with others and belonging to groups or associations, which helps give security to your personal and professional life.

11th house

Where you look to the future your hopes and wishes. Your friends, how you act in group situations and the kinds of groups to which you are attracted.

♄ in 11th House

Setbacks and insecurities

Your friends may occasionally present you with the challenge to face your deepest insecurities and inhibitions, to bring you out of your shell. At times you may even be too formal with friends, afraid of putting a foot wrong, or saying something out of line. On the other hand, friends could at times be something of a burden, dumping their problems on you. You must resist the temptation to feel responsible for taking on problems that they should be dealing with themselves.

Inner conflict

You have an inner conflict between the need to be free and the need for security and stability. It may be that early attempts to express yourself as an individual were somehow suppressed, or your need for security and stability was constantly being shattered by circumstances beyond your control.

You will need to find some way to balance the two conflicting needs of stability and freedom, perhaps by understanding that the only real stability in this life comes from understanding ourselves and the only true freedom comes from being ourselves.

Mixed dreams

At times you may feel unable to achieve a sense of real security, feeling that the results of all your efforts can at any moment be washed away by some unforeseen tide of events. Occasionally there's also a conflict between your sense of reality and your dreams and you may therefore swing between being a hard-headed pragmatist and a hopeless dreamer.

Uranus

Represents the expression of your need for freedom and independence and the way you choose to experiment with life. Uranus is the motivation behind your future dreams.

♅ in ♃

Independence

You're not likely to stay in a job out of a sense of duty or tolerate work that has become routine and boring. Your work needs to allow you scope for originality, inventiveness and movement. You'll want to do things your own way and will dislike being bound by other people's rules and regulations. This could therefore lead to many disruptions and changes in your career. Beware being over critical. Unusual ideas about food may also lead to strange eating habits. There's also a slight danger of stress related illnesses and to being more accident prone than most.

6th house

Your attitude toward, your working environment. Health and the interaction of your mind and body to maintain the efficient (or inefficient) working of your physical body.

♅ in 6th House

Individuality

In your work environment you need the space and personal responsibility to act on your own initiative. You're not likely to stick to a job out of a sense of duty or the need for security, neither are you likely to tolerate a job that has become routine and boring. Your work needs to allow you scope for originality, inventiveness and movement. You like to do things your own way, and dislike being bound by other people's rules and ways of working.

♅ ♀ ★☆☆☆☆

Forces of change

Everyone around your age is part of a generation that's not fooled by empty promises. Freedom for the individual and environmental issues will be of importance to you.

♆

Neptune

Represents your spiritual self, dreams, imagination and creative abilities.

♆ in ♃

Idealism

Born between 1957-1970 you are part of a permissive generation whose experimentation with sex and drugs invaded everyday life and eroded many traditional family values. This was also the most prominent time of the Cold War, a time of spies and secret surveillance.

♃ in 8th House

Intuition and uncertainty

You need to be completely open and honest with anyone you are emotionally involved with. In all business and financial matters you'll need to take care that everything is open and above board, otherwise you could find your financial resources being dissolved away.

Generational influences

Starting in 1942, and for the next hundred years, everyone born during this time will be affected by the changes taking place in the world's collective psyche. The keynote of this entire period will be the complete transformation of our existing scientific, religious and political belief systems.

♇

Pluto

Represents the secretive side of your nature, your obsessions and shows us how to come to terms with and deal with your deepest insecurities.

♇ in ♍

Forces of change

Pluto was in Virgo between 1957-1971. When you were born your generation experienced a time of powerful political forces such as trade unions, unparalleled changes within the health and welfare system, a time of tremendous changes within many work environments due to computers and automation. New developments in birth control led to greater sexual freedom, and experimentation with psychedelic drugs revealed previously unknown levels of consciousness.

♇ in 6th House

Secrets, powerful obsessions

Any illness should be examined to see if it's not connected to some other part of your life, or the manifestation of hidden emotional problems or conflicts.

At work, you have a powerful will that struggles against all the odds. You're conscientious and hard working, but your determination to prove this to yourself and to others can become obsessive and, at times, even destructive.

You will occasionally be forced to face your deepest fears - sometimes with accompanying emotional pain. You may feel at times that a part of you has died, but the death of an old way of being or feeling usually has to occur in order to make way for something new to grow.

MC

The Midheaven

Represents your ambitions and potential for achievement.

MC in ♈

Career

Optimistic and enthusiastic energies will be concentrated on your career. But you must be free to make your own decisions and act upon your own concepts and ideas - restrictions will not be tolerated. You may have to travel in connection with your work or have much contact with foreign companies or individuals working abroad.

♁ in ♁

Future growth

You must learn to love and give generously regardless of what you see as others' imperfections. Learn to lie with skill.

♁ in ♋

Developing experience

As has been said on may an occasion 'make love not war' and try to be of help to others.
