Katie's 'Young Life' Profile

Welcome to Katie's profile. It is written with the intent of giving concerned parties in general, an idea of Katie's character, talents, needs and wants. This knowledge will help point Katie in the right direction. This profile requires an accurate birth time. If you do not know the exact time of birth some of the information may not be completely relevant although the overall view will still be valid.

This profile is divided into a number of sections - detailed below - to make it easier to read and understand.

When reading this you will find both the positive and negative qualities of Katie defined. Most people will be happy to learn about the positive ones, while others may get upset over the negative ones. Contradictions will always appear in a person. They are what give us our uniqueness. We have tried to balance all qualities as much as possible so you get a good overview. Some children have wonderful charts while others have difficult charts and this will manifest in their personality.

The 'profile' as outlined here is not set in concrete and can be changed with your help. If the profile is positive you simply support and direct Katie. Where the profile indicates difficulties for Katie, guidance, direction and boundaries will be important.

Suitable for any young person from about sixteen months old and up. That is when she will start manifesting the qualities described. If you are having this profile prepared for a newly born child you will have to wait some time before it begins to make sense and be of value.

The 'Aspects' or individual characteristics are given a Star Rating from one to five to show their relative importance in the Profile. To the right of each pair of 'aspect' symbols is a group of five stars ★☆☆☆☆, the more dark stars there are the more important the connection. The keys for the planets and the other symbols and terms used are given at the back of the report.

Section A - laying down the foundations

1. Essential character - this profiles the general trends and outstanding characteristics of Katie's nature, and also makes some comment on the quality of the relationship with the father. However this is not easily defined using Astrology so the section entitled 'Emotional and feeling nature' must be considered carefully together with this opening section.

* Between the first two sections, which deal essentially with father and mother there is a short section on 'The dominant parent'. We do not try to make a definitive judgement here but tradition states that the father is externally dominant and the mother is emotionally, or internally, dominant. Make your own judgement as to which parent fits the bill best.

2. Emotional and feeling nature - this shows how the more passive and sensitive side of Katie's nature is likely to develop and also comments on the nature of the relationship with her mother.

3. At this point we look more directly at the relationship between Katie and her mother.

4. Personality - this is a description of Katie's physical nature; and also her general approach to the world; the way she sees it; and the way she likes to be seen. For instance, does she wear rose-coloured glasses or does she view the world from behind dark glasses?

Section B - the process of development - from toddler to teenager

1. Assertiveness - this describes how Katie makes her presence felt and if she is essentially active or passive. Does she like to push her way to the front, or stay determinedly in the background?

2. Friendship and social attitudes - this looks at how Katie will get on with others. For instance, will she be a bit of a loner, have hundreds of friends, or just a few who are useful, and so on.

3. The power of the mind - this describes the approach Katie is likely to take towards the intellectual and academic side of her life and how she will respond to the rigours of education.

4. Money - this looks at how Katie will handle the money in her pocket or purse. Spendthrift or miser? Such traits establish themselves early and tend to remain with us all our lives.

Section C - preparing for independence

1. Higher education and establishing values - this section describes how Katie, approaching complete independence, lays down the belief and educational framework that will sustain her through her adult life.

2. Approach to daily working life - this looks at how Katie is likely to fare in the harsh world of work. What drive, if any, she has to succeed and how she will deal with the inevitable day-to-day necessities of work.

3. Career and ambitions - this final section examines how Katie might approach the business of how to make her mark on life, and what areas might be the most productive for her as she grows steadily older.

Section A - laying down the foundations

Essential character

The Sun signifies our inner sense of identity, and our will. It is the single most important planet in our birth chart and generally describes what we are seeking to become through the journey of life, or perhaps our 'destiny'.

Sun in Scorpio

If Katie is typical of her Scorpio Sun sign, then much of her essential nature will be hidden from view. Shrouding her motives in secrecy, she will reveal little of herself even to her closest family. This is not because she is in any way anti-social, nor that she has anything to hide, but she knows that - if too much about herself is revealed - others may gain the upper hand, or may try to manipulate her in some way. To Katie, knowledge is power, and she wishes to have the monopoly on power. She must be in control at all times.

There will be nothing shallow or wishy-washy about this child. Be advised there will be a struggle for supremacy even before she is out of the pram - and she'll win it. Her willpower is phenomenal, and she is extremely purposeful. The force of her personality is such that it will either drain you of energy, or regenerate you.

If this is what she is like as a youngster, just imagine what she'll be like when she's older!

In her relationships she will be as intense as everything else in her life. Katie's emotions run deep, and her fundamental need to control at all times may manifest itself as unreasonable possessiveness, and she can be extremely jealous.

Katie is a deeply passionate person who can do nothing by half-measures. In love or war it will be all or nothing. She will be unable to live on a superficial level, and will have to subject everything in life to the most thorough investigative scrutiny.

Her memory is long. She will forget neither a kindness nor an injury. She makes a lovingly devoted friend and a bitter, implacable enemy. Katie has staying power, and will wait if need be, to the end of her lifetime in order to exact revenge. Cross her at your peril!

Katie will have the ability to inspire fear or awe in others, because of the overwhelming force of her personality. But 'forcefulness' does not mean 'hardness' for, beneath the surface, lies a rich seam of compassion and feelings.

It may be difficult to mine this seam, however, because Katie will prefer to help those who at least try to help themselves - so strong herself, she despises weakness.

Her formative years will be vital, if she is to use her potent energies positively, rather than for the selfish gratification of her desires. She has strength, an unbreakable will, and the power to precipitate crisis and, through it, the power to bring about deep and fundamental change; to bring about total transformation.

Katie's wilfulness

Sun in 7th House

Life as a hermit would not suit Katie at all!

Her sense of 'self' is best expressed through close personal relationships. 'Relating' to another will bring out her unique qualities and help shape her identity by giving her a sense of perspective. Through partnership - both personal and professional - she will blossom.

She simply cannot and will not be able to function effectively on her own, she needs 'partners' in the way others need food. Because family members do not necessarily make for good 'partners' she is likely to move out into the wider world at a young age in search of new people she can 'hook up' with.

Sun Conjunct Mercury

She has a strong, forceful and powerful mind that needs to be expressed creatively. She will usually be convinced that she is right, that her opinions should hold sway and will not back down easily. She will have a constant stream of novel and interesting ideas but could lose a sense of objectivity because her mind is overpowered by her will and logic goes out of the window. Then she could use her mental strength to push her ideas through. Therefore she needs to be careful when talking to others that she's got her facts straight, and is not bullying others with her intellect.

Sun Conjunct Venus

Katie will have the ability to express herself in a very elegant manner, which she may well use to great advantage in social situations, particularly as she grows older. She will dislike anything that she sees as ugly or unrefined having a natural desire to aim for sophistication but at the same time she will also have a major tendency for self-indulgence. Cream cakes as a child, partners as an adult. Fortunately, her innate sense of style and grace will always see her through - basically she is, and always will be, a 'charmer'. This will see her through many a tricky situation in life.

Sun Conjunct Mars

Katie will certainly have a fiery nature, being rather impulsive. She will have plenty of energy, and could well run her parents ragged. She has the ability to be both assertive and aggressive, but when she does lose her temper, despite its ferocity, it is generally short lived and soon forgotten. She will always have plenty of courage and be the type to 'rush in where fools fear to tread'.

She will see life as a challenge, always new and exciting. Life for her is a competition and her aim is to win. At her best she's enthusiastic and eager, someone who is constructive; can motivate others and be an instrument for change.

It's as though she feels a strong sense of purpose and direction and is eager to get there. She's at her best when acting, doing something, involved in new experiences, new enterprises, or pioneering new ways of doing things.

It's important for her to be involved in fields that allow her the opportunities for adventure and excitement, i.e. the military, the police, the outdoors, and entrepreneur businesses. One small problem is that she will have a tendency to ignore the wishes of others and could be rather dismissive of those who are not as strong-willed and courageous as she is.

Sun Conjunct Jupiter

Katie is an optimistic and confident child with a great sense of fun. She has a great belief in herself and trusts life, therefore she is often very lucky. Providence smiles upon her. At her worst Katie is excessive in her conduct being prone to exaggeration and boastfulness. Katie needs to know to work within her limits, rather than trying to attempt more than she can accomplish. This quality could make her unreliable.

Sun Square Saturn

To Katie life seems a bit of a grim affair, she doesn't seem to be able to have fun. She has a natural inclination to see the negative and take things rather seriously. She will be very hard on herself and those who are close to her, expecting high standards. Katie will often feel as though she has too much responsibility and may be prone to bouts of slight depression.

She needs to learn how to inject fun into her life and not take it all so seriously. She'll also probably be a bit of a loner and not have a very strong social life. There is no great harm in this but it is possible that this isolation only reinforces a sense of rejection so any encouragement and warmth shown her will go a long way.

Sun Square Neptune

Katie may come across as vague and vacant at times. It's as if she is lost in another world. She has an imagination that needs to be directed and used otherwise it becomes just escapism.

Katie is acutely sensitive to the world around her and if that world is full of pain, suffering and conflict she will escape in whatever way she can because Katie finds the suffering of others unbearable and may in some way even feel responsible for it.

Katie needs to learn to be clear and direct and to commit herself to a decision or person. Self-assertion is difficult for her. To avoid confrontation she weaves curious webs to camouflage herself in a fog of confusion. Art, dance and music will use the creative potential locked up here and prevent more destructive conduct.

The Dominant Parent

In this section we are using traditional astrological rules for defining Katie's relationship with her father. However this may well be more applicable to Katie's Mother. Generally one or other of the parents has the strongest influence in developing Katie's approach to the outside world. Traditionally this has been the father's role but it could perfectly well apply to her Mother, hence the use of the phrase 'The Dominant Parent'.

Capricorn in 10th House

This is a very traditional relationship and Katie expects her father to be the authority in the family. She will look to her father to present an old-fashioned role model and will grow up to express similar attitudes in her dealings with the outside world.

Neptune in 10th House

Katie will tend to see her father as not really being there - not necessarily because this has any basis in reality but because Katie's father is so 'head in the clouds' that Katie finds it difficult to make the kind of contact children look for when growing up. This relationship can be very cultured and Katie may learn a great deal from her father about such things as music and painting but may unfortunately learn unreliability at the same time.

Emotional and feeling nature

In this section we shall examine how Katie relates on an emotional level. This is traditionally associated with the maternal relationship but we have not made such an obvious assumption and the following section should not be read as being primarily concerned with the relationship between mother and child.

Astrologically, the Moon describes our responses, sensitivity, our feeling nature, and the unconscious side of our personality. It shows our emotions and these, of course, will be filtered, or coloured, by the sign in which the Moon falls. Most importantly, the Moon shows our needs.

It shows how we will react on an instinctive level.

Moon in Leo

Katie needs the spotlight, and an audience.

A bit of a 'show-off' as a child and that's an understatement! Katie will seek attention and admiration. She's open in her affections, generous, warm and loving, and just a tiny bit stubborn. She'll have a strong need to love and to be loved in return.

Her main fault is a tendency to become petulant and childish, even when he grows up! if she is ignored, or thwarted in any way. She is naturally creative, with instinctive leadership qualities, and the ability to make people feel 'special'.

Katie will be a delightful child - although she'll expect to be treated like royalty!

The houses of the chart represent different compartments of life, different areas of experience, and each house will 'colour' the Moon in a slightly different way.

Moon in 4th House

This placement of the Moon gives a strong need for a secure base, and a craving for 'continuity' through a family. Katie's emotional well-being is heavily dependent on happy family relationships, and she is likely to have a very close link with her mother.

She may prove to be one of life's natural cooks, or someone who expresses her innermost feelings by plying those she loves with enormous meals! Highly emotional, she will respond on an instinctive level to what is happening around her and in the home environment.

Katie's emotions and feelings

Moon Square Mercury

Emotional difficulties arise for Katie, which inhibit conversation and learning. She feels more than she thinks and is not able to express what is happening so she will tend to worry and become emotionally frustrated. She feels she is not listened to or her ideas are constantly disapproved of, so she may develop the technique of hiding her feelings.

She needs to learn how to express her feelings appropriately and how to think clearly when she is being swamped by strong emotions. At school she may be shy or sensitive about speaking out and, remaining quiet, won't get the attention she needs.

Moon Square Mars

Katie is emotionally very impulsive and is liable to act out her feelings without thinking. Unfortunately she tends to see slights where there are none and then throws real temper tantrums. These have their roots in her relationship with her mother, which might be somewhat fraught. She needs to learn the fine art of patience and not being so quick to react.

Moon Opposition Neptune

Katie is the original Scarlet Pimpernel, at least on an emotional level. "They seek her here, they seek her there". She has a tendency to see confrontation when it doesn't necessarily exist, and then withdraw into her own universe. She will always be a bit of a dreamer but this can turn into artistic talent, as she grows older. It is important for Katie to learn to face problems wherever possible rather than run away from them, to give a sound base for later life.

Katie's relationship with her Mother

It is important to understand that the relationship between mother and child is always 'symbiotic'. In other words the way Katie's Mother behaves towards her child and the way Katie perceives her mother is so inextricably linked that it is hard to separate the one from the other. Does Katie's mother react to Katie or does Katie react to her mother? This is perhaps the original chicken and egg question, and in this section we shall try to address this issue.

Moon in Leo

Katie is a loving and joyous child. Both she and her mother have a lot of fun together and she probably considers her to be an utterly delightful child. Katie is a warm and open child who loves to show off - and be shown off - and likes nothing more than to be told how wonderful she is.

The more she is praised, the greater a delight she is. She looks up to her parents and is particularly proud of her mother, just as she is of her. Katie will have a special place in her mother's heart and she will also enjoy all her dramatic way of behaving.

Moon in 4th House

The relationship between mother and child is a very simple and traditional one untainted by outside influences, and the joys of the parent-child relationship can be experienced in full.

Mother is a strong influence on Katie, and she needs to feel close to her or else she may feel insecure and uncertain. She has a desire for peace and security and will always be very attached to her home and family. There is a need later on to establish firmer inner foundations upon which to build her life.

Personality

This section looks at how Katie views the world and likes to be viewed by others. No matter what Katie's essential nature may be all of us have a 'face' that we put on for public consumption and this section describes that 'face'.

AS in

Katie's ascendant/rising sign is Taurus

Because Taurus rules the throat area, Katie will have a pleasant and melodious speaking voice, and may even be a gifted singer. However, when angered, the 'melodious voice' soon changes to an irate bellow!

She will have a strong sense of values, and a strong sense of self-worth. However, there may be a tendency to greediness, possessiveness and jealousy.

Venus bestows good aesthetic taste, and so, when older, Katie is likely to make her home a haven of comfort and beauty. Her preferred room in the house is likely to be the kitchen, for she will develop a fine appreciation of the pleasures of the table! Good wines and gourmet foods will appeal to her sensuous side. She may also develop a love of gardening, where the slow, steady growth of plants and flowers will reflect her patient nature.

Katie has great 'sticking power', and will see a project through to its end, however far away. She could be considered stubborn although Katie greatly prefers the word 'determined'! She is a loyal and devoted ally, and the friendships she makes through life will be solid and enduring.

Section B

Toddler to teenager the process of development

Assertion

In this section we will be looking at the way in which Katie finds her way through the rough and tumble of childhood and later life, without being pushed around by others. The methods and approaches she uses to make sure her own needs are met and how she deals with the needs of others when they are at odds with her own.

Mars in 7th House

Katie most definitely wants to make friends and not enemies. Her desire to get her own way will be modified by her need to get along with others. She can see both sides of a situation, has a strong sense of fairness and justice, and is willing to make compromises, so she will always hold back her own temper and use co-operation as a way of getting what she wants.

Katie wants nothing more than to form binding and long-lasting relationships that are happy, and will invest much of her energy into making and maintaining friendships and relationships. Her dislike of confrontation will remain a feature of her life.

Friends and social groups

In this section we shall be looking at what sort of friends Katie needs and what she is likely to bring to friendships herself. We shall also look at the way in which she is likely to interact with social groups or whether, for example, she would prefer to be on her own.

Aquarius in 11th House

Katie has a naturally social nature and will almost certainly gravitate towards social groups, as opposed to individual friendships, from an early age. She may well display a desire to be involved in a group that holds an overtly radical stance, whether that be political, ecological, or technological, etc. In these kinds of situations, feeling very much at home, she is likely to thrive.

More on Katie's friends and social groups

Uranus in 11th House

Katie seeks independence socially, wanting to be part of a group and yet maintaining her own independence. She should make friends easily, but may have more acquaintances than intimate friends. She may also display a desire to reform and change society, so her friends may well be of a revolutionary and liberal nature.

The power of the mind

In this section we indicate Katie's communication and learning skills, her needs at school and requirements for her further education. Of particular interest to her parents will be how to talk and connect with her.

Cancer in 3rd House

Academic progress will come from Katie's excellent memory and her ability to absorb information easily. Despite these qualities, however, she is unlikely to display the logic of a great intellectual, since her mind is ruled by feelings, and her emotions often tell her how to think. She uses instinct rather than intellect, and she may find it hard to look at things objectively. Her empathetic qualities mean she has the potential to be an influential speaker, as she is able to arouse the sympathies of others when she speaks.

More about Katie's mental approaches

Mercury in Scorpio

Extremely intuitive, remarkably perceptive, Katie is also obsessively secretive about her innermost thoughts, and so you may never fully fathom this child's mind. Still waters run deep, they say, and Katie prefers to keep silent about what goes on in her head.

Her mentality is complex. She can rarely be swayed by sugary sentiment, but she responds to strong emotions. She can be sharp, even cruel in her speech, and some of her ideas may be considered harsh, yet there is a deep vein of compassion within her.

Her mental energy is immense. She has great determination and resourcefulness, and can overcome the most enormous obstacles with nothing more than the force of her willpower.

At school, her fundamental need for control may lead to power struggles with her teachers and, if thwarted, she may be manipulative and even subversive. She can also be alarmingly obstinate. She takes pleasure from knowing that others can be intimidated by her intellect, and she enjoys playing mind games.

There's nothing wishy-washy about her communicative abilities. Never superficial, but passionate and intense, Katie can even manage to say 'good morning' in a meaningful way!

Mercury in 7th House

Katie likes nothing better than interacting and relating with others, and enjoys learning from them.

When older, she will seek an intelligent and mentally stimulating partner. She may marry for intellectual companionship and will be drawn to people with whom she can share a meeting of minds. There is also the possibility she may be strongly attracted to a partner who is her intellectual superior, for Katie never misses the opportunity to learn something new.

Co-operative and easy-going in her dealings with others, her pleasant and charming ways will be a natural asset should she wish to become involved in the fields of public relations, broadcasting, or the arbitration, mediation and advisory services.

Katie's communication skills are modified in the following way

Mercury Square Moon

Katie is a child of fluctuating moods and could benefit from keeping a daily journal, or diary. This will help her to pin down her viewpoint, which she is likely to change more frequently than she does her socks! Identifying a pattern in her thinking will help her come to terms with the wealth of unfocused thoughts teeming in her head.

Observant, and alert to nuance, she takes pleasure in trivial chitchat, and can gossip away for hours - often to the detriment of what she is supposed to be doing!

Mercury Conjunct Mars

Prone to acting before thinking, Katie is an assertive - and often aggressive - communicator, always ready to leap into an argument with her contribution. Almost combative in her debating skills, she may use her incisive intellect and razor-sharp tongue to bully her opponents verbally.

She appreciates direct speech, for she does not have time to wade through convoluted talk or waffle. In her book, actions speak louder than words, and she is always the first to act on a good idea, generally one of her own!

Mercury Trine Uranus

Katie has a quick, intelligent and inventive mind, capable of lightning flashes of illumination and understanding. She is swift to grasp an idea, to see it from a different perspective, and to change it into something better. Her views are progressive, if a little ahead of their time, and she holds strong humanitarian ideals.

She has an extremely high regard for the truth, and may have an excellent or even photographic memory.

♀ □ ♆ ★★★★★☆

Mercury Square Neptune

A dreamy and highly imaginative child, Katie may find it hard to distinguish between reality and fantasy.

This is not to say that she is in any way untruthful, of course. It's just that she has the unconscious ability to distort the hard facts of reality so that they may more comfortably fit in with her perception of a situation. It is the sort of viewpoint that allows, for instance, the bitter blow of redundancy to be seen as 'a wonderful chance to spend more time with the family'.

Neptune's proximity to Mercury in Katie's chart may rob her of rationale, objectivity and a certain amount of clear-sightedness. However, she will be more than compensated by her heightened creativity, sensitivity, and intuition.

This child will learn little or nothing if she is simply presented with rigid formulae or solid blocks of dull, factual information. Indeed, such an approach may lead to learning difficulties, even dyslexia. But capture her imagination, inspire her, and there are no limits to what she may absorb!

Earning and spending money

In this section we shall look at how Katie is likely to develop in terms of her attitude towards the acquisition and expenditure of money.

Gemini in 2nd House

Katie will show entrepreneurial flair in her attitude to earning a living, and be a skilled 'wheeler-dealer'. She may hold down more than one job at a time, and is likely to make her money through her communication skills.

More information concerning Katie's attitude towards finances

Venus in Scorpio

Katie is very aware of the power of money, and knows how to use it to her advantage. She will rarely - if ever - have occasion to throw herself on the mercy of her bank manager for an overdraft, for she will invariably have a secret fund of money held in reserve. Preferring to deal with other people's money rather than her own, she could be attracted to the profession of a stockbroker, investment consultant or banker.

Venus in 7th House

Katie will probably be unable to go anywhere with her finances without the aid of a close partner. This may be her marriage partner or just a business partner but she is unlikely to make money on her own.

Section C - preparing for independence

Higher education and establishing values

In this section we shall examine how Katie is likely to find her place in society, as she grows older. What standards she will set for herself and what she values. This will probably not become clear until Katie has reached at least the puberty stage.

Capricorn in 9th House

Intellectually ambitious, Katie has traditional views about education and will be looking to go through the education system to the very end. Only the best schooling will do for her and she would like a degree that carries weight and prestige.

More about Katie's philosophy and further education

Jupiter in Scorpio

Katie is likely to be deeply fascinated by the mystery of life and the complexity of the Universe, and may have a compulsive need to find out about the part she plays in it. With this in mind it is quite likely that Katie will want to make the most of the possibilities of further education to explore her own universe further and she would no doubt benefit from this process.

Katie's education

Jupiter in 7th House

Her relationships, be they personal or professional, will be honest, warm, generous and open. Above all, they will be mutually beneficial. As Katie is naturally skilled in the art of communicating she may well be able to draw considerable benefit from further education but it may not be absolutely necessary.

This section is especially concerned with Katie's inner values

Jupiter Conjunct Sun

There's a strong risk-taking element in this child's nature but, with the luck that seems to accompany her every move, her risks generally pay off!

She is generous, inclined to extravagance and has more confidence than most people. Her buoyant optimism and positive outlook will ensure she is a popular and well-liked child.

All of which means that she has a strong internal faith in life and this quality will show through in everything she does.

Jupiter Conjunct Venus

Extremely popular, and with many friends, this child has a generous nature and a cheerful disposition. She may also be artistically talented.

Katie has an innate sense of her own self-worth and she will learn as she grows older how to use her own inner faith to create the best possible world for herself and those who are close to her.

Jupiter Square Saturn

Katie is likely to meet certain obstacles during her lifetime, and these must be tackled and overcome before she can develop. For instance, a pessimistic streak may prevent her from recognising opportunities or she may lack the confidence to take advantage of them when she does spot them. Rigidity of thought may inhibit flexibility of aspiration.

Katie is likely to establish her own personal belief system based on the idea of constant change. She will always feel that any established system, her own included, should be regularly replaced to prevent rot setting in. In this sense she has what might be termed a revolutionary streak.

Approach to daily working life

This section will look at how Katie may approach the thorny problem of working for a living. Naturally this will not begin to show until her teenage years, but as with everything else, forewarned is forearmed and there will always be ways to produce the most positive outcome!

Virgo in 6th House

Ideally suited to one of the service industries, Katie would also find satisfaction in a job involving the whole spectrum of health and dietary concerns.

More about Katie's likely approach to working life

Mercury in Scorpio

Katie could use her innate knowledge of psychology, and her deep perception, to good effect in her employment and she would be well suited to an advisory position. She would also enjoy the role of 'trouble-shooter' in some field, for there is no one better at crisis management than Katie. She has a talent for handling other people's money and financial affairs. She might also be drawn to forensic science.

Mercury in 7th House

Katie's greatest strength as an employee lies in her ability to relate to people. This, coupled with her communication skills, could fit her for the work of an advisor or arbitrator, and would make her the ideal person to work in a marriage bureau! Her strong aesthetic sense could be put to productive use in for example, interior decoration.

Career and ambitions

In this section we shall look at how Katie might approach the outside world in terms of possible careers and potential ambitions as she grows to maturity. Naturally these traits are unlikely to show until Katie is at least in her teens.

Neptune in 10th House

When - as in Katie's chart - Neptune is found in the tenth house, it may manifest its influence in several ways. For instance, it may cloud the whole issue of the ideal career, leaving Katie confused about the best direction she should take. It may also fog her sense of realism, so that she has vague and unattainable longings for a career to which she is unsuited, or so that she cannot accurately assess her professional strengths and weaknesses.

However, nothing in astrology is one-sided, and this placement of Neptune may bestow artistic or musical talent, or the gifts of mysticism, clairvoyance, and healing.

One way or the other, Katie's will be no ordinary career. She may drift through the mists, or be inspired to the greatest heights. Only time will tell.

More about Katie's possible career approaches

Saturn in Leo

Katie will want to be seen as special, as something of a star. While this may manifest itself as attention seeking, or flamboyant conduct, when she is a child, she will be at pains as an adult to establish not only her status and authority but - and perhaps this is more important - her uniqueness as an individual.

Her over-riding fear is to be thought 'ordinary' and for her creativity to be unappreciated or - what is, to her, far worse - ignored.

Parental criticism, or discouragement, will wound her pride and self-esteem, driving her hurt inwards and stifling her talent. In that case it may not be until later in life that she finds the self-confidence to pursue her creative bent or professional goals once again.

Saturn in 5th House

Katie has a marked and perfectly natural desire for fame and public recognition, and is likely to gravitate towards some creative occupation - or at least one where she is on display! She may be drawn to the theatre, for instance, to work in production, or management, or she may display a talent for acting itself. Any sporting ability should be encouraged, too, for she would make a good sports coach, and a fair if somewhat stern teacher to children.
